

North Carolina Collection

Friday Morning Music Study Club Records

Title:	Friday Morning Music Study Club Records
Inclusive Dates:	1932-1993
Extent of Materials:	One flat box
Location:	NC 2nd floor storage room, Shelf 5
Donor:	Mrs. Dorothy Rankin
Description:	Materials consist of 5 small loose-leaf notebooks, 1 ledger, and 1 folder. Interspersed with the notebooks of meeting minutes are a few newspaper clippings, programs, invitations, and similar materials.
Scope and Content:	The Friday Morning Music Study Club Collection, 1932-1993, consists of a treasurer's ledger, meeting minutes, records, correspondence, and two photographs documenting the club's activities. The Friday Morning Music Study Club was organized in October 1932 by Mrs. Palmer Constable and friends in order to "promote the culture and study of music." The club held a variety of programs relating to music study and also acted to support local performances. The collection includes membership lists, attendance records, and materials concerning its fiftieth anniversary year, 1982-1983.
Container List:	Notebooks: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. October 1932 Origin of the Club; Minutes October 1933 – May 1952</li> <li>2. Minutes October 1952 – May 1967</li> <li>3. Minutes October 1967 – April 1973</li> <li>4. Minutes September 1973 – April 1982</li> <li>5. Golden Anniversary Celebration 1982-1983; Minutes September 1982 – April 1989.</li> </ol> Treasurer's Ledger, 1932-1993 Folder: 2 photographs, circa 1938 and 1966.

Get help with your account

Durham County Library - 919.560.0100