Abstract:
	The collection contains minutes, administrative records, newspaper clippings, scrapbooks, audio recordings, electronic records, and other materials documenting Preservation Durham's activities. The Minutes and Administrative

Preservation Durham Records

Scope and Content:	Records Series contains minutes of the board of trustees, executive committee, and general meetings. The bulk of the series is meeting minutes, Other administrative papers include correspondence, charter and bylaws, officer lists, and financial records. The series is arranged chronologically. The Clippings and Publications Series is largely composed of newspaper clippings compiled by Preservation Durham staff that feature the organization or historic preservation more generally in Durham. A few publications such as brochures and flyers are also included. The Scrapbooks Series contains scrapbooks that document events and activities and include pictures, newspaper clippings, and event invitations and brochures. The series also includes a photograph album and two early scrapbooks, one for the Embassy Club annual ball and one for the East Durham Community Center Ladies Club. The AV Materials Series comprises recordings of sponsored lectures and events on various historical preservation topics, including the Lunch and Learn series, as well as digital images and presentations.
Related Materials:	The Durham record : Journal of the Historic Preservation Society of Durham, North Carolina.

Restrictions:
Biographical/Historical Note:	Preservation Durham serves to protect Durham's historic assets through action, advocacy, and education. A group led by Margaret Haywood founded the organization in 1974 as the Historic Preservation Society of Durham. First executive director John H. Compton was hired as the organization's first full-time staff member in 1995. The name was changed to Preservation Durham in 2007. In 2012 Wendy Hillis became executive director.
