FEATURED PROGRAM

Myths and Monsters: Wild Tails

Myths and Monsters: Wild Tails
 November 9, 1 - 1:30 p.m. and 1:30 - 2 p.m.
Main Library
Registration Required

Scales! Fangs! Eight eyes, oh my! Join our reptilian and invertebrate ambassadors, if you dare, to learn why we don't actually need to fear these often-misunderstood animals and the important roles they play in their ecosystems. The 1 - 1:30 p.m. program is for children under the age of 12, and the 1:30 - 2 p.m. program is targeted toward tweens and teens grades 6 - 12.

Rainbow Story Time

Rainbow Storytime
 Saturday, November 9, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.
Main Library
Registration Required

All families are invited to our bilingual (English/Spanish) Rainbow Story Times every second Saturday of the month. Rainbow Story Time welcomes all families, including allies, to gather and enjoy a diverse selection of children's books. Additionally, participants can engage in crafts that align with the monthly themes. This month, Rainbow Story Time will feature The Artist by Nikkolos Smith and give the community an opportunity to enjoy a showcase of the artivism projects completed by youth in RCC's Artivism Workshop! Limited quantities of free featured books will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Rainbow Story Time offers language options in English, Spanish, and American Sign Language.
