FEATURED PROGRAM

Read-A-Thon After Hours Kickoff Event

programs, please view our events calendar.

Registration Required Join us as we count down to the start of our 48-hour Read-A-Thon! This is an

Thursday, April 10, 6:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Main Library

chasing the thrill of the Scholastic Book Fair. We will have activities and events on our main and lower levels including: - Countdown to Read-A-Thon and mini-challenges - The Poetry Fox exclusive, after-hours event just for adults. This event is for those who are still

- Live poetry readings* - Crafts
- STEAM technology including VR headsets, Ozobots, and more

*Participants are welcome to bring a poem or short story they would like to read to the group. The Friends of the Durham Library will be onsite giving away free books. Mocktails will be provided by Melanated Wine and Spirits. This event is open to patrons aged 21 and up. Registration is required.

Contact: Sara Gibson, sgibson@dconc.gov or Jennifer Jamsky, jjamsky@dconc.gov

Register for the Read-A-Thon Event

Carolina Cryptids: Monsters from the

FEATURED PROGRAM

Tar Heel State

DURHAM COUNTY LIBRARY AND ARCANE CAROLINAS PRESENT

You've heard of Bigfoot and Mothman, but do you know what lurks in your own backyard? In the still of the night, in the depths of the forest, in the waters you thought were safe... something stirs!

Registration Required

to uncover cryptids like the Santer and the Cape Fear Mermaids that may be closer than you think. Contact: Elle Farmer, kfarmer@dconc.gov

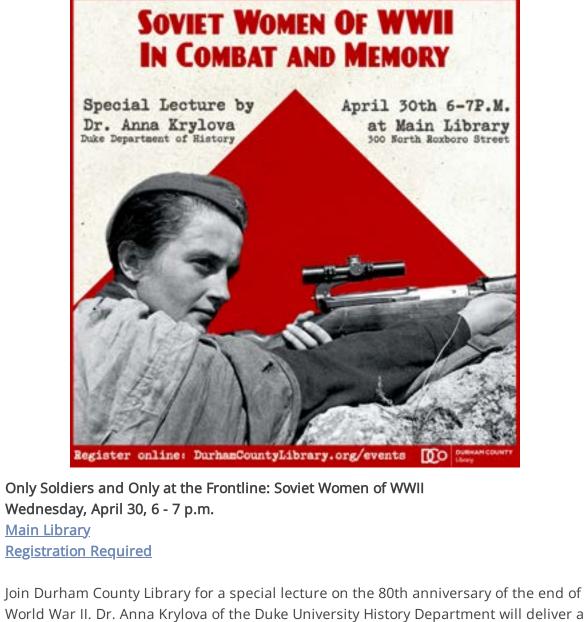

Join Michael G. Williams, co-creator of the award-winning podcast Arcane Carolinas,

Register for Carolina Cryptids

FEATURED PROGRAM

Only Soldiers and Only at the Frontline: Soviet Women of WWII

ONLY SOLDIERS AND

presentation on women of the Soviet Union in active service on the frontline, their experiences, and the legacy of their contributions to the defeat of Nazi Germany and victory of the Allied powers. Contact: Larkin Coffey, lcoffey@dconc.gov

Register for Soviet History Program

Saturday,

Exploring Science's Tiny Marvels

3rd floor

FEATURED PROGRAM

Discovering the Unseen: Exploring

Science's Tiny Marvels

Discover the Unseen:

Registration is not required. This event is for all ages, but children under age 11 must be accompanied by an adult. Contact: Caroline Flory, cflory@dconc.gov

More Information on Discover the Unseen

FEATURED PROGRAM

time between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and join the fun. Don't miss out on this unforgettable adventure into the small-scale wonders of science!

This event is free, family friendly, and no registration is needed—just drop in any

Sustainable and Emerging Trends in Death Care

Durham County Library Presents Sustainable & Emerging Trends In

Death Care

Wednesday April 23rd @ 6-7P.M. Main Library Auditorium 300 North Roxboro St. Register online: DurhamCountyLibrary.org/events DO DURHAM COUNTY Sustainable and Emerging Trends in Death Care Wednesday, April 23, 6 - 7 p.m. Main Library Registration Required This presentation will offer a comprehensive look at the evolving landscape of end-oflife choices, from eco-friendly burial practices to aquamation and human composting. Participants will explore the importance of proactive decision-making—from legal documents and advance directives to thoughtful conversations with loved ones. Hunter Beattie, owner of Endswell Funeral Home, will highlight how sustainable, personalized, and community-centered approaches are reshaping modern death care, thereby empowering individuals to leave a meaningful legacy that honors both personal values and the environment. Contact: Larkin Coffey, lcoffey@dconc.gov Register for Death Care Program

Mud Dauber School Natural Building Workshop Saturday, April 5, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Main Library

CPR Training Monday, April 14, 6 - 7:30 p.m.

Check out these other events for adults! Click the links below to for more info.

South Regional Library Maintenance Fundamentals with Home Repair Lab

Monday, April 14, 6 - 7:30 p.m. Main Library Hobby Curious: Ham Radio

Wednesday, April 16, 6-7 p.m. Main Library Poetry and Playlists: Jazz Wednesday, April 23, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

South Regional Library

See a full calendar of events

Share Your Experience!