FEATURED

Body/Breast/Bottle Feeding Basics

Breast/Body/Bottle Feeding Basics
Saturday, May 23, 10 - 11 a.m.
Southwest Regional Library
Registration Not Required

Join Andrea Fowler, Postpartum Doula and Certified Lactation Counselor, to start your infant feeding journey off with calm and confidence! During this free course, you will learn small but impactful adjustments to help ensure your comfort and baby's ability to remove milk effectively during direct breast/bodyfeeding. We will practice paced bottle feeding, discuss different bottle/nipple shapes and explain how to introduce a bottle, so that you can feed your baby human milk in the way that works best for your family.
